

With the coronavirus happening right now, it is hard to live life how i want to. I can't even be within 6 feet of other people. I also can rarely ever leave home now. All of my sports are cancelled, almost all companies are temporarily closed and even some parks are closed. I think at this time, life is hard.

ANONYMOUS ENTRY (by request of the author)